Please read the following rules as they will be strictly enforced:

- 1) Entry forms are to be completed correctly as your class number will NOT be checked, consequently, any incorrect numbers quoted will mean automatic disqualification for the relative exhibit.
- 2) Birds which are, in the opinion of the Chief Steward, infected or diseased or in anyway dangerous to other exhibits will be refused entry and fees forfeited.
- 3) No person other than the Judge or his Steward will be authorised to handle exhibits during the Show. Penning and unpenning will be supervised by Stewards appointed by the Committee.
- 4) The Committee has been authorised to refuse entries from any person without explanation.
- 5) The awarding of class or ribbons etc will be left to the discretion of Judges if any entry is considered below the required standard.
- 6) Judging will be open, however, any person interfering or considered to be acting unfavorably will be requested to leave the pavilion and his or her exhibits disqualified from competition: fees being forfeited.
- 7) Exhibits in junior classes will not be eligible to compete for Open Class Awards but are catered for within their own sections.
- 8) Rules of the Exhibition Poultry Association will apply.
- 9) Juniors must be sole owners of exhibitors and must not exceed 16 years of age, and must not exhibit birds of the same breed as persons of the same address.
- 10) Best of Breed or Major Awards can not come from Breed Pair Class.
